

Minimize Recruitment Costs

Value Added Human Resource Services

Michigan Works! has a long history of helping Upper Peninsula businesses keep their recruitment costs in check. Most organizations know that hiring can be costly, but sometimes overlook hidden costs, including potential lost revenue from unfilled positions and the interruptions of the interview process. Let us help you lessen both the direct and hidden costs of your recruiting efforts.

Features of Michigan Works! Services:

- Our efforts free up your staff's valuable time
- We match YOUR needs with applicants that possess the appropriate knowledge, skills and abilities
- We can help reduce your employee turnover
- We are considered the preferred provider of human resource services by regional business and industries
- Our recruitment process is simple and consistent
- We deliver "just-in-time" staffing
- We provide applicant status on demand
- Selection criteria is objective and measurable
- We provide worker-retention assistance