

Upper Peninsula Construction Council

Founded in 1984, this private, nonprofit corporation facilitates communication and fosters teamwork between contractors and unions. The member contractors and trade unions are committed to provide a competitive and skilled workforce and to produce the highest quality construction services for its customers. The UPCC Website contains valuable information and links surrounding the construction trades.

To learn more go to:

www.upclmc.com

