"Doing business with Michigan"

The State of Michigan has a contract portfolio worth billions.

Design & Construction

Video Conference

Patrick Mullen from Facilities Administration will speak on topics such as bidding opportunities, how to register as a state vendor, free resources for research and bid preparation, and navigating the state contracting process.

This video conference is hosted by your local Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC). The PTAC is a non-profit organization that provides no-fee assistance to companies interested in doing business with federal and state government agencies. PTAC Procurement Counselors help businesses to understand government contracting and selling to the government.

Location:
